Hague, October 19.

'SOME Days ago the Emperor's Minister here presented a Memorial to the States, complaining that the Council of State lately establish'd at Brussels by the Duke of Marlborough and the Deputies of their High Mightinesses, had cited the Council which the said Minister had settled at Limbourg, to be accountable to them and submit to their Jurisdiction. To understand this Affair 'tis necessary to be inform'd, That after the taking of Limbourg, at which Time his Catholick Majesty was here, the States on an Agreement put him into Possession of that new conquer'd Province, reserving only to themselves Part of the Revenues for paying the Garrison they keep in the Town of Limbourg. King Charles did by a Patent constitute the Emperor's Minister Count Goes his Administrator in that Province. Before the Spanish Netherlands were siez'd by the French a little before the present War, all those Provinces were, according to ancient Custom, under the Jurisdiction of the Council of State of Brabant: But because when Limbourg was taken by the Allies Brabant was in the Hands of the Enemy, Count Goes establish'd a Council at Limbourg for administring Justice, &c. The Allies being now possess'd of Brabant, the Council of State establish'd at Brussels would have the Affairs of the Spanish Provinces be turn'd into their former and natural Channel, and have signified this to the Council of Limbourg. This is what the Imperial Minister complains of in his Memorial, the rather because having receiv'd his Commission of Administrator of the Province of Limbourg from King Charles himself, he will not be responsible to the Council of State of Brabant which was neither establish'd nor has been confirm'd by his Catholick Majesty, pretending (with good Reason) that none but his said Majesty himself can revoke his Commission, and put things upon their ancient Foot: The Memorial at large is as follows: The States have pass'd a Resolution, by which they approve Count Goes's Reasons.

My Lords,

'SOME Weeks ago, the underwritten Envoy Extraordinary of his Catholick Majesty, had the Honour to represent in a Conference with some Members of the Council of State, that the Council of Brabant had sent Order to the Supreme Tribunal of Limbourg to suspend their Judicature, and to send all the Processes they had before them to the said Council; giving this Reason, that such was the Practice during the Reign of King Charles the 2d and the Usurpation of the Duke of Anjou, and that the said Supreme Tribunal was establish'd only ad interim and till the Province of Brabant should be reduc'd. The said Envoy made Inquiry whether this was done by Order of England and of this State, and being inform'd that this State knew nothing of it he order'd the said Tribunal to continue their Judicature, and not to obey the Council of Brabant in any Manner, till they should receive his Catholick Majesty's express Command to the contrary. The Council of Limbourg has obey'd my Orders, I being the Person to whom his Catholick Majesty has entrusted the Administration of the Dutchy of Limbourg. But the Body which your Lordships, joyntly with England, have establish'd at Brussels, by the Name of a Council of State, have since sent fresh Orders to the Estates of Limbourg and of the Country on that side of the Maese, particularly an Otder to send all Frenchmen out of the Country by a Time limited, of which Order I have not yet seen a Copy; they have also order'd the Receiver General to appear before them, probably to make him give them an Account of what he has receiv'd, and to oblige him for the future to obey their Orders: The Receiver General has refus'd to appear, alledging that he depends wholly on me, as Administrator, till the King shall order otherwise. I know not yet what Answer the Estates of Limbourg and of the Country on that side of the Maese will return, but the King's Officers having inform'd me that this Order of the Council of State of Brabant has put them into great Perplexity, I have order'd them not to obey the said Council, without an express Command from his Catholick Majesty; that being conformable to his Intentions. Now being fully perswaded, that your Lordships have no Concern in this Demand of the said Council of State, and questioning whether you would suffer it should the like Order be sent by that Council into the Spanish Gelderland, I earnestly desire you to direct your Deputies at Brussels to intimate to that Council the Irregularity of their Proceeding, in daring tho' neither known nor approv'd by the King, to subvert by their Orders an Establishment made by his Catholick Majesty himself in his Province of Limbourg and Country on that side the Maese: This is the more necessary, because I am oblig'd by Virtue of my Office to oppose all that the said Council shall attempt in the said Countrys, because such a Disorder is very unseasonable in the present Juncture of things, and because these Proceedings disable me from giving the necessary Orders for paying your Lordships. I beg your speedy Resolution.

Sign'd, Peter Count de Goesen.
